RBC WEALTH MANAGEMENT'S MATTHEW FOSS EARNS

CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER DESIGNATION

Naples, FL. 1/5/2016 –MATTHEW FOSS, CFP®, financial advisor at RBC Wealth Management in Naples, has earned the educational designation of Certified Financial Planner (CFP) through Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. (CFP Board).

While not required to hold this designation as a financial advisor at RBC Wealth Management, Matthew chose to pursue it for educational purposes, as it demonstrates extensive knowledge in many areas of the financial planning process including investment planning, retirement planning, estate planning, insurance planning and risk management. Matthew was also tested on ethical obligations faced by investment advisors.

CFP Board, a nonprofit regulatory organization, fosters professional standards in personal financial planning so that the public values, has access to and benefits from competent and ethical financial planning. The organization awards the designation of CFP to individuals who successfully complete initial and ongoing certification requirements. CFP Board currently authorizes more than 55,000 individuals to use these marks in the United States.
